

John Thomas Jones

John T. Jones is the son of the following couple:

1. Abel Jones. 1816 - 1866.
2. Martha Ann Underwood. 1814 - 1872.

John and his brother Rees married sisters. Rees married Caroline Rhoades. John married her sister, Matilda Rhodes.

John and Matilda married in Edina, Knox County, Missouri on December 3, 1861. Their children were as follows:

1. Infant (probably named Charles). Born August 31, 1862 or more likely February 10, 1863. Died one month later on March 10, 1863.
2. Caroline (Carrie) Belle Jones was born October 17, 1863.
3. Alexander (Alec) Oliver Jones was born June 4, 1866.
4. Martha (Mattie) Hester Jones was born February 14, 1872.

John and Matilda's grandchildren are as follows:

Carrie Belle and her husband Frank Lowe had seven children who were as follows:

1. Guy Whittemore Lowe. Born July 22nd, 1885.
2. Anna (Ann) Leach Lowe. Born February 19, 1888.
3. Franklin (Alex) Alexander Lowe. Born Feb. 16, 1890.
4. Alliance Belle Lowe. Born February 23rd, 1892.
5. Beatrice Estella Lowe. Born March 4, 1894.
6. William Bryan Lowe. Born October 23, 1896.
7. Georgia Belle Lowe. Born June 2, 1899.

Many of the Lowes married and produced children of their own.

Alec married Parkfield's Viola May Redmond, sister of the famous deaf-mute artist, Granville S. Redmond, on June 1st 1891. Alec and May had two children:

1. Carrie Lavina Jones. Born March 18th, 1892.
2. Edward Munson Jones. Born in 1896 (possibly died at birth).

Edward Munson died as an infant on November 8, 1896 due to a premature birth or "want of vitality". Alec died of consumption (tuberculosis) complicated by "lung fever" (pneumonia) on February 23, 1897 at the age of 30. Carrie was thrown from a horse and died between 1902 and 1906. She died at the age of 10 per her tombstone and at the age of 13 per family accounts. May remarried. She and her second husband James Lancaster lived in Los Angeles. They had a son named Hayden in 1902. May died on May 11, 1947 in Los Angeles.
